D.S.

High school is often referred to as the best years of our lives. Sometimes it is a trying period of life; it's one in which we grow into early adulthood from childhood. Many times, however, it is a really exciting and wonderful period with dances, games, and numerous activities which all together give you a feeling of really belonging. The climb from Freshman to Senior is very exciting, while difficult, but it does leave you with a sense of accomplishment. The theme, "Climb Every Mountain", we feel, is the best expression of our views on school life. This yearbook is what we of the staff consider, and hope, is and will be a lasting memory of our days at Zama and we sincerely hope you will find it to your liking.

Principle's Message

All the students of Zama American High School can look upon this year's experiences with pride. The class of 1966 is congratulated upon the commencement of their adult life and the dignified leadership they provided their school. Zama has grown in stature from the ideals and example that the class of 1966 displayed.

The Rising Sun staff is congratulated for their excellent production and Mr. Sechrist for his untiring efforts on behalf of the annual and school. With our new modular schedule it has not been easy.

To all of you a "well done" and Godspeed. May you always feel that Zama has contributed in a small way to your lives.

Sophomore Class History

The Sophomores marked a successful and exciting year under the leadership of Chang Akana, President; Misty Draz, Vice President; Vivian McInvale, Secretary; Mona Cocchi, Treasurer; and Jay Anania, Sergeant at arms.

A lot of spirit was contributed by the Class of '68. The boys supported the athletic program and Jo Ann Johnson, Capt.; Barbara Kimoto, Co-capt.; Vivian McInvale and Gale Ballenger cheered them on.

Jackie Ivey, Capt.; Linda Conley and Jackie Taylor displayed their talent as majorettes.

During Homecoming activities the hard working Sophomores made and entered a float. Mona Cocchi represented the Class as their attendant in the Homecoming Court.

With the money made from bake sales and candy sales the Sophomores sponsored the traditional Valentine's Dance.

Now, the Sophomores are looking forward to their next year in high school and Zama High can be sure of support from the Class of '68.

Junior Class History

The Class of '67 faced a tremendous test of responsibility, that of giving a successful Junior-Senior Prom and to set an admirable example for the under-classmen. To lead them the juniors chose Mary Beth Anania as president, Sue Brand, vice-president; Barbara Bradford, secretary; Reiko Kawaguchi, treasurer and Martha Hartmann, sgt. of arms. Class sponsors were Mr. Sechrist and Mr. Head.

The junior chief money-making activity was concessions during games. Donna McInvale did an outstanding job as chairman of the sales.

On the gridiron the Junior class was represented with varsity boys Don Alberti, Ron Anderson, Phil Chamberlain, John Crook, Glen Davis, Ed Groden, Pat Jackson, Rick Palmer, Marvin Potter, Dan Shepler and Brian Umeda and J.V. boys Drew Beck, Nick Kiya and Bill Odell.

Cheering the boys on were Varsity cheerleaders Mary Beth Anania, Jeane Freeman, Sandy Williams and co-captain Barbara Bradford.

Jane Sampson and Katy Lockwood were assets to the tennis team. Wayne Moy and Dexter Abing were on cross country. Later in the season Mike Dale and Captain Wayne Moy participated in golf.

During Homecoming activities, Sue Brand represented the Class of '67 as an attendant to the queen. Mike Dale was the chairman of the class float committee which turned out the first place float!

Basketball season saw juniors John Crook, Tom Waters, Rick Palmer and Brian Umeda (manager) on Varsity. Marvin Potter was outstanding on J.V.

Junior grapplers were Dexter Abing, Don Alberti and Mark Conway.

The Class of '67 was an asset scholastically as well.

Reiko Kawaguchi was the secretary of National Honor Society and Sue Brand, Phil Chamberlain and Blanche Sayama were active members.

On the Kakimono staff were juniors Sherri Kershaw, feature editor; Lavaughn Darnell, exchange editor; and Blanche Sayama, Reiko Kawaguchi, Phil Chamberlain, Dexter Abing and Mary Beth Anania.

With Mary Beth Anania as assistant editor, Sue Brand, secretary Jeane Freeman, Carol Chadd, Diana Thorlin, Barbara Bradford, Blanche Sayama, Dee Takasumi, Wayne Moy, Donna McInvale and Dagmar Rapp, the Rising Sun had a successful year.

The Class of '67 was represented in almost all school activities. Student Council representatives were Martha Hartmann, Sue Brand, Katy Lockwood and Diana Thorlin. Jeane Freeman was Drama Club treasurer. Blanche Sayama worked hard as chairman of Red Cross. Letterman's Club historian was Wayne Moy.

At the Christmas dance, Martha Hartmann was the junior attendant. Katy Lockwood reigned over the Valentine's Dance and Mary Beth Anania was the junior attendant.

Junior activities through the year included a Thanksgiving Turkey Raffle, booster pin sales, a talent show, ordering class rings, Powder Puff football and basketball and last, but not least, the Prom.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held May 5th at the Zama Officer's Club. The theme was "Showboat". Jeane Freeman did a splendid job as Prom chairman. Sue Brand and Katy Lockwood were junior attendants.

The year was trying but the Class of '67 made the grade and were awaiting the fall with the expectations of becoming seniors.

"Live every day to the best of your ability."

JANE KEEGAN

"Art is a shadow of Divine perfection."

WALTER (JIM) LEWIS

"Priceless things come in small packages."

CHERYL LIEBECK

Cheryl was born in Kansas City, Missouri. She left Zama at the beginning of her Senior year for Carroll High School in Corpus Christi, Texas. Lucky gal!

"He that has patience may compass anything."

"A pleasing personality shed a brightness over everything."

NANCY LOCKWOOD

"One should take good care not to grow too wise for so great a pleasure of life as laughter."

ROBERT (BOB) MIDDLETON

Robert hails from Marcus Hook, Pennsylvania. He is another hopeful lawyer, who is really fascinated by girls (not the conceited ones). Sports cars and beaches are two of his favorite things in life.

"To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life."

ALVIN (KEN) MIYATAKE

Ken has worked very hard putting out the Kaki-Mono, snapping pictures, and presiding over the Drama Club this year. He enjoys photography, acting, and floating opponents across the room. His future reflects a pediatrician driving a XK-E.

"Cheerfulness and content are great beautifiers."

DELVINEY (DEL) PATNO

Del comes from Barre, Vermont. This guy hasn't had enough of travelling yet. He is going to join the Air Force! If you want to get a conversation started with this senior, just mention motorcycles.

"Remember this,-that very little is needed to make a happy life."

HARRISON (HARRY) PATNO

Ski jumping, hunting, and fishing are the interests of this Zama senior. Harrison comes from Graniterville, Vermont. His future plan is to become a pediatrician. If you don't know what that is, better use a dictionary.

"Art is another means of communicating with the world."

ROBERT (BOB) SHIRLEY

Bob was born in Columbus, Ohio. His main interest is motorcycles, although coin and stamp collecting do count with Senior. Like most drivers here, his main dislike is the driving in Japan.

"No life ever grows great until it is focused, dedicated, and disciplined"

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

GLENN TART

This young athlete from Erwin, North Carolina, plans to become a lawyer. His happiest moment is when the 3:40 bell rings, and the saddest is when the report cards are handed out.

"Men of letters are frequent, but a true gentleman is what one seldom sees."

JAMES (JIM) TURNER

"Our life is frittered away by detail . . . Simplify, simplify."

JOHN VANDERBECK

This surfer comes to us from none other than San Diego, California. Among his many interests are football, model planes, and last, but far from least, girls! As for his future occupation, it's a toss up between a ditch digger and a nuclear physicist.

"If mankind profits from past mistakes, what a honey of the future is coming up."

RONALD (RON) VANKIRK

SERVICE IS THEIR MOTTO

FNC

The Future Nurses Club this year boasted a membership of twenty-five, with new members joining constantly.

Their regular duties included working on the wards, immunization clinics, and at Central Material Supply. Girls working in the hospital gained valuable experience in becoming the nurses of tomorrow.

The FNC undertook two major projects this year, these were "Project Hope" and "Hankies for Yankies." The projects were successfully accomplished, especially "Hankies for Yankies," where many high school students participated in supporting the soldiers in Vietnam.

Library Assistants

The library assistants, with the capable supervision of Mrs. Nakamura and Miss Wada, learned the methods of processing new books and caring for older books. They worked in all areas of library management and assisted other students in using library materials.

During the lively Christmas season the Band and Chorus performed in front of the student body. The Band also went to Yokohama to participate in a competitive concert which was composed of different schools, Japanese and American. The Chorus gave a concert for the Officer's Wives at the Officer's Club on December fifteenth. Both the Band and Chorus performed in front of the student body in February.

Another concert was held in the spring for the student body. They also performed for the Sagamihara Elementary School.

Before the school year ended they gave a concert in one of the Japanese schools in the Zama area and also played for the P.T.A.

The Zama Trojans were under the direction of three coaches during the year. Coach Dobson and Assistant Coach Nelson started the boys out and chalked up our victory over Yo-Hi in the opening game of the season. Then Coach Tucker arrived, watched the team play in the rain against Yamato and took over as Head Coach. Team spirit, which was rallied during pep assemblies, kept the Trojans fighting throughout the season. Spirit, perseverance and, above all, sportsmanship made Zama the proud holder of the J.F.K. Sportsmanship Trophy for the 1965 Football Season!

David Mayekawa was leading the pack after the two fall season tourneys. He was closely followed-up by Wayne Moy, returning Letterman and Captain. Mike Dale and Milton Isa placed third and fourth respectively. Both John Moy and Keith Hazelrigs, in their first year at golf, placed fifth and sixth.

Bob Borge, who placed first for Zama in every meet, took most valuable honors. Dexter Abing, a returning letterman, placed third in the first meet but flared back to finish a close second for the rest of the season. Out for most of the season was Allen Hanano. He placed second in the first meet and fourth in the third meet. Phil Bowen, in all but the first meet, placed third. Wayne Moy placed in this fashion for the season: 7, 6, 5, 4, and 5th. Hiroshi Lewis finished 6, 5, 6, -, and 6th. Wayne Effron, who didn't finish twice, rushed in with a 5, 4, -, -, and 4th.

While the basketball games were hot on the courts, Zama wrestlers proved skillful on the mats. After many unfortunate forfeits in different weight classes, Zama finally pulled through with an easy win over Chofu.

There were five returning grapplers from last year who formed the hard core.

For the rest of the team, it was their first year at such a sport. Their skill has improved with each game, and as seasoned veterans, we hope they will return to Zama next year and provide another exciting season.

"No tickling!"

That's YOUR leg, Don

TENNIS

With a team carefully supervised by Coach Thayer, Zama played magnificently on the courts. They compiled a commendable six win and one tie record.

The Most Valuable Player Award for the year went to returning letterman Barry Doyle.

During the Tourney at St. Mary's Zama placed first in overall point percentage. The girls took first in their department, while the boys placed a very close second in theirs.

Letter from the Editor

About this time of year the Annual Staff is both happy and tired. There are two reasons. First of all there are no more meetings after school and we don't have to look at one another again. Secondly we are happy because all of our hard work is finally shown in the fine publication which you now behold. The modular system has presented tremendous problems for the Annual Staff. We have had to work after school and on several Saturdays. It has been hard and long, but I have enjoyed it. The yearbook has proved to be a good thing for me.

A main goal of the staff has been to pay completely for the yearbook. We have succeeded in getting a large enough sum of money so that the Student Council won't have to use its money for yearbook payment. We feel that this is a very great accomplishment.

The Annual Staff has had much help this year. MR. SECHRIST has done more than his share of work and he gave us careful guidance. SUE JAMISON did a tremendous job on the Senior section and she deserves many thanks. JANE KEEGAN and RON SEARS have done many art works for the yearbook and they are both greatly appreciated. KEN MYATAKE'S photographs have appeared throughout the yearbook and they are of the highest quality. MR. KUNKLE, of the Education Office, has been very patient with the staff and he has spent many hours of his own time getting advertisements for the yearbook. I also must thank LT. COL. LINROTHE and SGT. RAPP for their help in getting and reproducing many photographs for the various sections. MR. TAKAMURA, of the photographers, has done some excellent work for the yearbook and I thank him for all his trouble. The person who I am really thankful for is MR. YASUYUKI YABUKI and the JAPAN NATIONAL BUREAU for the beautiful photograph of Mt. Fuji which appears on our color page.

The theme of "Climb Every Mountain" was the idea of the entire staff and they have carried it out superbly. I thank them all for their hard work in producing the 1966 RISING SUN of Zama American High School.
